

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

---

JAMES PATRICK YANCE,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 22-CV-1213

CO PHILLIPS,

Defendant.

---

ORDER

---

On March 27, 2024, the defendant filed a motion for summary judgment on the merits. (ECF No. 26.) On April 1, 2024, the court issued a notice and order informing pro se plaintiff James Patrick Yance that he had until April 26, 2024, to file a response to the defendant's summary judgment motion. (ECF No. 31.) The court cautioned Yance that, if by that date he did not respond to the motion or file a letter explaining why he was unable to do so, the court would accept all facts asserted by the defendant as undisputed.

The deadline has passed, and Yance has not filed a response to the defendant's motion. As such, the court will construe the motion as unopposed. The court has reviewed the defendant's motion, brief in support, and the undisputed facts, see Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(e)(2), and concludes that the defendant is entitled to summary judgment on the merits. The case is dismissed.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that the defendant's motion for summary judgment (ECF No. 26) is GRANTED.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this case is DISMISSED with prejudice. The Clerk of Court will enter judgment accordingly.

This order and the judgment to follow are final. A dissatisfied party may appeal this court's decision to the Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit by filing in this court a notice of appeal within 30 days of the entry of judgment. See Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 3, 4. This court may extend this deadline if a party timely requests an extension and shows good cause or excusable neglect for not being able to meet the 30-day deadline. See Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 4(a)(5)(A).

Under certain circumstances, a party may ask this court to alter or amend its judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) or ask for relief from judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b). Any motion under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) must be filed within 28 days of the entry of judgment. The court cannot extend this deadline. See Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(b)(2). Any motion under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b) must be filed within a reasonable time, generally no more than one year after the entry of the judgment. The court cannot extend this deadline. See Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 6(b)(2). A party is expected to closely review all applicable rules and determine what, if any, further action is appropriate.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 14th day of May, 2024.
